RIPS OPEN HER TIGHTS.

A thousand women in the Orpheum Theater, at Kansas City, watched Miss Annette Kellerman cut a long slit in her black silk tights. She stood sideways to the audience of women so they might get a better look at what had been declared the "most perfect womanly form in the world."

Miss Kellerman came upon the stage wearing a dress of black satin. Then she disrobed down to the skin-tight covering of black silk.

"People have said that I am padded," she said. She called to her maid to bring her a pair of scissors. "It is a shame to have to cut this pretty suit, but I guess I'll have to do it."

She raised her right hand and inserted the point of the scissors near the right shoulder. Snip, snip, snip went the shining little scissors as they cut through the almost transparent silk.

She cut down across her right side, and on down to her right hip. Then she laid the scissors down and took hold of each side of the garment and spread it wide open.

Ten thousand women cheered.

But there wasn't a man there to applaud; even the ushers were girls.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

JEWISH FARMERS IN GEORGIA.

For the colonization of Jewish farmers drawn largely from the crowded sections of Chicago and other cities, 35,000 acres of land in Pierce county, Georgia, have been purchased by Rabbi A. K. Levy, pastor of B'nai Abraham congregation, who is the leader in the new "back to soil" movement.

The plans contemplate the subdivision of the land into small farms of an acreage sufficient for the support of a family. A Chicagoan, whose name was not disclosed, is furnishing the funds, but in the end the colony is expected to be self-supporting, those who take up the land repaying the initial cost, as well as the expense of putting up a small home, out of profits of cultivation.

A dehydrating plant, sugar mill and cannery will be established by these in charge, who will agree to purchase the output of the farmers at a fixed price if a more favorable market is not found. The physical improvement of the Jewish people of the poorer sections of the big cities is the object of the undertaking.

KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Two persons were instantly killed and three others were injured near Glen Hazel, Pa., yesterday afternoon when an automobile became disabled by the bursting of a tire, turned turtle, and rolled down a 20-foot embankment. The dead are Mrs. J. E. Jackson and her 5-year-old son, of St. Marys.

The injured are Mrs. Francis Hyde; St. Marys, a sister of the dead woman, Miss Charlotte Wilmarth, of New York, and Frank Myers, the chauffeur, of Johnsburg, Pa.

Mrs. Jackson and her son were crushed beneath the heavy machine. Mrs. Hyde and the chauffeur are both injured internally, and are not expected to live.

Hoarseness in a child subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the disease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given at once or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Contains no poison. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

TO LOTTIE CAVE.—Take notice that on Saturday, 25th day of October, 1910, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m., at the office of Frederick P. Russell, 117 north Fairfax street, in the city of Alexandria, Va., I shall proceed to take the testimony of Gilbert W. Cave and others to be read in my behalf in a certain suit in equity now pending in the Corporation Court of said city in which you are defendant and I am complainant, and if the taking of the testimony be not begun or if begun be not completed on that day, then the taking of the same shall be continued from time to time and from place to place until the same shall have been completed. GILBERT W. CAVE. Affidavit having been made in this cause that the defendant, Lottie Cave, is not a resident of the state of Virginia. It is ordered that the foregoing notice be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, once a week for four successive weeks.

People Who Work Indoors With Their Hands

Seamstresses, watch-makers, artists, draughtsmen, and many others, cannot properly handle their tools with cold, stiff hands. Many a lost hour or two on cold winter mornings results from the delayed heat of furnace or stove.

The Perfection Oil Heater in a few minutes gives the temperature that assures the worker warm hands and pliable muscles. The

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER
Absolutely smokeless and odorless

quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

It has a damper top and a cool handle. Indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain, and cannot get lost.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection is finished in Japan or nickel, is strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.

When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is gotten for the money spent.

We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer. A trial order of our Coal and Wood, or an opinion from some of our satisfied customers, will prove that our idea of putting quality first is correct.
